Dr. Thompson,
I want to thank you very much for calling by phone, Tuesday, to say my son who was suffering with severe cramps in his legs, had been to the doctor and was told to take a teaspoonful of Embrocation in a small cap of 80 water, but in less than fifteen minutes he had no more pain or cramps. I should like to say about all the time I have had and all exams had disappeared. Wednesday morning he was able to return to his work, so he will now be thought to be well again. I thank you very much for your kind help. I have a remedy for cramps. You know how he was suffering when tests were in 1913.

DEMOCRACY

A Democracy is Founded Upon Equal Rights, Equal Duties and Equal Responsibilities For All Citizens.

THE PRESIDENT'S APPEAL

We have read with a deal of interest, President Wilson's appeal to his fellow countrymen, concerning mobs and the mob spirit in America. We read it again and again. The more we have read it, the broader its scope and deeper its meanings have been to us. While mobs and the mob spirit were the principal points of attack, the President made it quite clear that justice and fairplay were the pillars of democracy. One of the most outstanding phrases in the address was, when the President said: "How shall we commend democracy to the acceptance of other people, if we disgrace our own by proving that it is, after all, no protection to the weak?"

To our way of thinking, the above words place a definite interpretation upon the term "Democracy". It is put to the test, and the future conduct of the American people will decide whether they really mean what they say about democracy.

We are glad that the President, at this time, issued such a statement, because it will strengthen the morale of the Colored people throughout the country, and at the same time, the leaders of our race will be better prepared to carry the message of hope, encouragement and inspiration to the twelve millions of true hearted Americans.

Yes, we are glad, because the President has the ears of the people of the Nation. They have responded nobly to every call that was made by him, and we have every reason to believe that they will respond to this appeal most loyally and patriotically.

COL. JAY L. TORREY HIGHLY PRAISED

To the Colored Voters of Missouri:

For thirteen years I served as Captain of a Colored company of the National Guards of Missouri, during the last ten of which I was the Senior Captain of the State. Col. Jay L. Torrey, who is now a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator from Missouri, was, during a part of my services, the Assistant Adjutant General, and was my Superior Officer. In all general orders which came to me through him, I found Colonel Torrey to be fair, just and courteous, anxious to promote the interest and welfare of the Colored companies under his command.

I am writing this letter voluntarily, without solicitation, in order that Colonel Torrey may be better known and understood by the Colored people who have not had the opportunity of knowing him as well as I have.

In my acquaintance with Colonel Torrey I have found that he was a cousin of Mr. Jno. G. Nicolay, who was one of the private secretaries to President Lincoln.

I urge upon all the Colored voters of the State to support Colonel Torrey in his candidacy.

Respectfully yours,

CAPT. W. H. BERZEEY.

It is hard to decide whether the man who declares he is totally illiterate and can't read or write is the independent hard worker or a genuine representative of the Negro.

Some of the speakers in the recent campaign have been so far from the truth as to give the lie to their statements.

Colonel Torrey has been compelled to admit that he can't read or write.

It looks like the Negroes of this country have been completely deceived.

CHURCHES

PROVIDENCE BAPTIST NO. 2

All the "Ville" was captured by Providence Baptist Church last Sunday.
They won the hearts of the people concerned, led by Mrs. Ruth Shetler an organist. The choir was presented to the public for the first time in their new robes. The music service, arrangements were made and everyone in the building, everybody was talking about it. It was one of the grandest services ever presented to the people of the church.

A big beditting memorandum in honor of the late Mrs. Eugenia B. Cole was read.

Mr. Reginald French and a beautiful

Bouquet was presented to Rev. E. Callum as a token of his health and devotion to his wife.

The efforts to build up a fine choir in the classical neighborhood of St. Louis.

The choir was completely taken off of the stage.

Mr. Cole will live forever in the hearts of the choir.

Loyalty to the church is a great thing and is being displayed in a great degree each Sunday morning.

The Pastor's absence was a planned thing to see change and growth in the church.

Mr. Cole has been a good man and a good pastor.

We extend a most cordial welcome to visitors and friends.
